CAUGHT IN A BIG PIT

Six Men Dead and Ten in Hospital Who Are Not Expected to Recover.

FOUR OTHERS PAINFULLY BURNED.

Large Quantities of White Hot Dust Forced Down a Pipe on the Unfortunate Men.

Their Cries of Agony, as They Withed in the Lava-Like Stuff, Could Be Heard For Nearly a Block.

Pittsburg, April 1.—An accident at Furnace I, of the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie Steel Co., at Braddock, is expected to prove one of the worst in the history of the plant in the number of deaths resulting. Twenty men were injured, six of whom are dead and ten are in the hospital and are not expected to recover. The other injured went to their homes and are suffering from painful burns.

The accident was caused by a "hang" in the furnace dropping and forcing large quantities of white hot dust down a large pipe into a pit where the men were at work. The victims were caught like rats in a trap without means of escape and all were burned and blistered over their entire bodies and large strips of flesh peeled off of their bodies when they were pulled out of the pit by fellow-workmen. The cries of agony of the victims as they withed in the lava-like stuff from which they were vainly trying to extricate themselves, could be heard for nearly a block away. Hundreds of workmen from other portions of the plant rushed to the rescue of their fellows and as quickly as possible pulled them from the pit and carried them to the emergency hospital. Seven of the men were completely nude when their bodies reached the hospital and the others had but a few shreds of clothing upon them. The bodies of the fatally burned could scarcely be recognized as such. They were blackened or shredded in strips by the white hot "down comer" dust that burned into their flesh. Many of the men had large splashes of molten iron that had struck them and burned through to the bone.

Furnace I is equipped with the famous electric "skids" and are now used on all United States steel corporation's blast furnaces.

James Gayley, now first vice president of the United States steel corporation, while general manager of the Edgar Thomson steel works and blast furnaces at Braddock, said on an occasion somewhat similar to that of Tuesday, if a furnace was working well and making regular casts there was no blast furnace men in the country who could tell whether that furnace would hang and cause an explosion. He said that if any invention could be brought forward that could forecast "bangings" it would be the greatest invention in blast furnace history and would save many lives as well as much loss to blast furnace corporations.

COAL DUST IGNITED.

Five Men Were Killed and Four Fatally Injured in a Mine.

St. Louis, April 1.—A special from Sandoval, Ill., says five men were killed and four fatally injured by an explosion in the coal mine here Tuesday. Three of the dead men leave families. It is thought the explosion was caused by a windy shot igniting the coal dust.

Child Kidnaped.

Omaha, Neb., April 1.—Albert Strohmeler, of Kansas City, aided by his wife and son, Tuesday kidnaped Lola Young, the adopted 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Young, prominent Omaha people. She is the daughter of Strohmeler by a former wife. The men made their escape with the child in a buggy, but Mrs. Strohmeler was arrested as she was attempting to escape on a street car.

Fatally Wounded Two, Killed Himself.

Kansas City, Mo., April 1.—While suffering from dementia, Frank Candee, aged 45 years, Tuesday night shot and mortally wounded his brother, Nathan R. Candee, aged 38 years, and his sister, Ollie Candee, aged 35 years, after which he shot and fatally wounded himself.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 1.—No. 10 trolley of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Co., located at Sugar Notch, five miles from here, will be reopened for work within the next week. Eight years ago it was abandoned.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Woman and Man Fatally Wounded, Found Side By Side.

New York, April 1.—Newton Schoonmaker, a mechanic living in Pine street, Brooklyn, on returning home Tuesday night found his wife, Lella, lying unconscious with a bullet in her breast and beside her Percival Covert, a young man living in Euclid avenue, also unconscious, with a bullet wound in his head and a revolver, of which two chambers had been discharged, lying beside him. The man and woman were taken to the hospital where Covert died without recovering consciousness. Mrs. Schoonmaker, who is 28 years old, recovered sufficiently to say that Covert had done the deed. She made no explanation of the cause of the tragedy and her condition was such that it was impossible to obtain any further statement from her. Schoonmaker himself was unable to throw any light on the affair.

On the dead man the police found two letters, one addressed to Covert's mother, of St. Albans, Vt., and the other to George Carstairs. In these letters the police say Covert admitted that he had embezzled several thousand dollars from the Williamsburg Trust Co., in whose branch office in Brooklyn he was employed, and that he had determined to kill himself. Mrs. Schoonmaker is the mother of two young children who were asleep in the room next to that in which the shooting took place. There is little hope for her recovery.

BIG GUN WORK.

Report of Target Practice Shows a Steady Increase in Proficiency.

Washington, April 1.—Ever since the maneuvers in the Caribbean began last winter the navy department has been watching the big gun work of the American ships and separate sheets in the department show exactly the results obtained from every shot fired in target practice on every ship.

When the maneuvers began the practice was not very good because of the large amount of green material in the crews, but the reports show a steady increase in proficiency that is extremely gratifying to the general board here. Last week Commander Winslow brought a report of extraordinary practice by the Massachusetts with the big turret guns and now comes a report from the little battleship Texas, of Santiago fame, that is at least satisfactory. This shows when engaged at target practice at 1,600 yards, the target measuring 21 by 17 feet (high) one pointer made 100 per cent. of hits, another 70 per cent. and many 50 per cent.

BURDICK INQUEST VERDICT.

Arthur R. Pennell Practically Charged Mended For Commissions in Army.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 1.—The verdict in the Burdick inquest, handed down by Judge Murphy Tuesday, while stating that the identity of the murderer of Edwin L. Burdick has not been proven, practically charges Arthur R. Pennell, the dead lawyer, with the crime.

Pennell had a stronger motive than any one else for putting Burdick out of the way, Judge Murphy says, and all the facts brought out by the inquest constitute just grounds for the issuance of a warrant against Pennell if he were alive. The verdict is softened somewhat so far as it relates to Pennell by the statement that if Pennell were alive he would be given the presumption of innocence until proven guilty.

ARTILLERY PIECE OVERTURNED.

A Corporal Killed and Three Soldiers Badly Injured.

Washington, April 1.—The overturning of a heavy piece of artillery in the drill hall at Fort Myer, Va., during the regular drill of the Fourth battery of field artillery, commanded by Capt. Stoppen M. Foote, caused the death of a corporal and the injury of three other soldiers.

When the accident occurred the battery detachment, consisting of four pieces, was tearing at a gallop around the drill hall in column. As the heavy guns took the turn at a corner the wheels of the leading piece struck a rut under the tank and the entire piece was turned upside down.

Escaped From Jail.

Liberty, Ky., April 1.—Geo. Rhineheart, who was held over until circuit court, having confessed to breaking into six stores here in January, broke jail by cutting the bars over the jail window.

Was Ninety Years Old.

Owensboro, Ky., April 1.—Mrs. Lucy Waltrip, one of the oldest residents of McLean county, died of infirmities incidental to old age at her home at Rumsey. She was 90 years of age.

PRESIDENT'S TRIP.

The Special Train is One of the Finest Ever Run Out of Washington.

IT CONSISTS OF SIX COACHES.

The Trip Will Continue From April 1 to June 5,—Nine Weeks and Three Days.

During That Time the Presidential Party Will Travel About 14,000 Miles—A Description of the Palatial Train.

Washington, April 1.—The special train on which the president left Wednesday morning for his western trip is one of the finest that ever ran out of Washington. It has been specially decorated and equipped for the trip. It consists of six cars, manned by a picked crew with Conductor William H. Johnson, who has been with the president on many trips, in charge. Spencer Murray will be in charge of the president's car which will be the private car Elysian. It has a parlor and observation compartment, three staterooms, a dining room, two sleeper sections, a kitchen and sleeping sections for servants. The other cars of the train will be the Texas, a compartment sleeper; the Senegal, a section sleeper; the St. James, a diner; the Atlantic, a combination buffet and baggage car, and a regular baggage car. The trip will continue from April 1 to June 5—nine weeks and three days. During that time the president will travel about 14,000 miles. John Burroughs, the poet naturalist of New York, arrived here Tuesday. He will accompany President Roosevelt until he arrives at St. Louis, making the tour of Yellowstone park with him. From St. Louis Mr. Burroughs will return to New York. President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia university, will join the party at St. Louis and will be the president's guest until he arrives in California. When that state is reached the president will be joined by Benjamin Ido Wheeler, president of the University of California, who will accompany him through the state.

WAYNE MACVEIGH.

Selected to Represent the United States at The Hague.

Washington, April 1.—The president has selected Wayne MacVeigh, of Pittsburg, who was a member of the cabinet of President Garfield, to represent the United States at The Hague when the arbitration tribunal considers the question of preferential treatment as between the allied and non-allied powers having claims against Venezuela. In view of the smallness of the claims of some of the non-allied powers, it is not improbable that Mr. MacVeigh may be requested also to assume charge of other interests than those of his own countrymen. Otherwise there will be a most formidable array of legal talent to present some rather insignificant issues.

PENSION APPEALS.

About 1,600 Cases Were Disposed of During the Month of March.

Washington, April 1.—During the month of March the interior department, through its board of pension appeals, disposed of 1,600 appeals in pension cases, which is 300 in excess of the record for any previous month in the history of the department. Assistant Secretary Miller expressed the opinion that at the present rate of increase the time is not far distant when pension appeals can be disposed of within 60 days after their filing as against the present average of 18 months. There are now about 14,000 cases on appeal in the office and about 600 new ones are received each month.

TREATMENT OF THE MOROS.

Religion, Slavery and Polygamy Will Not Be Interfered With.

Washington, April 1.—Gen. Wood, it is stated, is not to interfere with conditions in the Moro country, so far as they relate to religious practices and slavery and polygamy. The war department has determined to treat the Moros according to the policy adopted for the government of the American Indians. Guided by the reports of American officers, like those of Capt. Pershing, the department is convinced that this is not the time to attempt innovations among the Moros. Later when the United States authority is more fully established the general extinction of slavery and suppression of polygamy may be attempted.

DR. W. H. LAWWILL.

A Former Resident of Mayslick Passed Away Sunday Night at His Home in Boyle County.

Dr. W. H. Lawwill, formerly of Mayslick, died Sunday night at his home near Shelby City, Boyle County, after an illness of several weeks. He was seventy-six years of age, and death was in great part due to the infirmities of old age, says the Danville Advocate.

Dr. Lawwill removed to Boyle County from Mason for the purpose of educating his family, and located on the farm where he died. Though educated for a physician at the Ohio Medical College in Cincinnati, of which he was the oldest graduate, he had not practiced medicine for many years. He had been engaged in farming since his removal to Boyle.

Dr. Lawwill was born in Brown County, Ohio, in 1826. He taught school in early life, and laid the foundation for an academic and professional education. He was pre-eminently a self-made man, having won his way through life by unaided efforts. In 1865 he was married to Miss Mary J. Wells, of this county. After her death he was married to Miss Mefford, also of this county, who died only a short time ago. He is survived by seven children,—Edward, William S., John, Thomas, Frank, Joseph and Stewart.

The funeral was held Tuesday at the Second Presbyterian Church of Danville, in which he had been an Elder many years, and the remains were brought here last night and laid to rest in the Maysville Cemetery this morning. Rev. Dr. John Barbour conducting short services at the grave.

FEATHER-WEIGHTS

Young Corbett Knocked Out Terry McGovern in the Eleventh Round at San Francisco.

FORMER FOUGHT LIKE A MACHINE.

There is a Dispute as to Whether McGovern Was Down at the Count of Ten.

For a Few Minutes It Looked as if There Would Be a Free-For-All Fight Among the Spectators Present.

Mechanics Pavilion, San Francisco, April 1.—William Rothwell, better known as "Young Corbett," of Denver, showed decisively Tuesday night that his victory over Terry McGovern, of Brooklyn, at Hartford a year ago last Thanksgiving, was no fluke, by defeating McGovern in the 11th round after a fight in which there was not a second of idleness for either man. In nearly every round Corbett, fighting like a machine, never overlooking an opportunity to send home his blows, had a shade the better of the argument, and when finally in the 11th round he got the Brooklyn boy fairly going, he never let up on him until Terry sank to the floor, a badly defeated man. Corbett put McGovern down in the first round for a count of seven and repeated it in the second.

There was some question as to whether or not McGovern was down at the count of ten, and for a few minutes it looked as if there would be a free-for-all fight. McGovern tried to get up, tried hard, and was on his feet an instant after the timekeeper counted him out. George Harding, the club timekeeper, who counted McGovern out, stated after the fight that the blows that knocked McGovern out were left and right swings on the jaw and a right uppercut on the chin. Harding said McGovern was in a dazed condition; that when he had counted nine he motioned him to get up but McGovern was too confused to notice and was unable to rise. At the count of ten McGovern started to rise but it was too late and the referee awarded the fight to "Young Corbett." Harding said that McGovern was completely out and that it was well for him he was unable to get up. Corbett was strong and ready and had McGovern risen to his feet he probably would have been seriously hurt. As it was, it was nearly a minute after McGovern had been carried to his corner before he was able to sit up or understand what had happened. The men in McGovern's corner claimed that the decision was an outrage. They said McGovern had been instructed to fight cautiously, and when he was knocked down he was to take the full count and that McGovern obeyed his instructions. They claim at the count of ten he was on his feet and although dazed knew what he was doing.

"It was the greatest robbery in the history of the prize ring," said McGovern. "I had Corbett beaten from start to finish. I landed on him when and where I pleased and surely would have had him out within a few rounds. I was not knocked out but admit the right uppercut to the chin dazed me and I took the count in order to save myself. I could have gone on with the battle, and would, I think, have regained the championship. I sincerely hope that some club will match us again and then you will hear a different story."

STABBED TO DEATH.

A Deputy Sheriff Killed By An Insane Man on a Train.

Jacksonville, Ill., April 1.—P. B. Campbell, a deputy sheriff of McDonough county, was stabbed to death by an insane man on a Burlington train near Chapin Tuesday afternoon. Campbell had charge of the man, whom he was bringing to Central Insane hospital. After stabbing Campbell's revolver and, thus armed, he defied the whole car until he was finally overpowered.

OVER 88,000 voters (88,891 exact number) have qualified for the approaching municipal election in Cincinnati, and there will be something doing in that city next Monday. The citizens' movement has at least got the Republicans badly scared.

Press dispatches frequently mention the fact that Chairman Young, of the Democratic State Committee, is in Frankfort in conference with Gov. Beckham, or the Governor has gone to Mt. Sterling to confer with Chairman Young. We have seen nothing of Mr. Young being in conference with the other candidates for Governor. What is the natural inference? Is the State Committee being manipulated in the interest of Gov. Beckham? If so, why what right? It is not treating the other candidates fairly, and should be stopped.

GOV. BECKHAM'S OPPORTUNITY.

The BULLETIN was one of the first papers to suggest that Governor Beckham should withdraw from the gubernatorial race in view of the doubt as to his eligibility for another term. Other Democratic papers have taken up the question and are urging upon him the same step. The Governor should let his own good judgment prevail in this matter and pay no attention to the politicians. The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat has a timely editorial on this point which we reproduce here in full:

A few weeks ago Messrs. Hendrick and Breckinridge, candidates against Governor Beckham for the Democratic nomination for Governor, began to assert in public speeches and argue with a force and plausibility which almost carried conviction with them, that Governor Beckham was under the letter and spirit of the Constitution ineligible to succeed himself as Governor.

The Governor and his friends, seeing plainly the widespread effect these speeches were having upon the public mind, resolved that they must satisfy the people and remove all doubt on the question by having it judicially determined in advance. To this end the Governor tendered his entrance fee to the Democratic Committee, and by prearrangement they refused to accept it because, as they said, he was ineligible to succeed himself as Governor, and could not, therefore, enter the primary for that office. Of course, this was done by the committee solely for the purpose of raising the question of eligibility and enabling the Governor to take it to the courts, as the committee is not generally suspected of being really antagonistic to the Governor.

It seems unfortunate from a party standpoint that the court did not see proper to decide the question. It leaves the party in the attitude of having as one of its most prominent candidates for the highest office in the State, a man whose eligibility is boldly attacked by his opponents and some of the best lawyers in the State.

The question is one complicated constitutional construction, and the legal fraternity of the State is hopelessly divided as to the correct version of it.

This unfortunate state of affairs presents to the young Governor such an opportunity to ingratiate himself with the masses of his party as comes to but few public men. He has only to say to them: "The Court of Appeals has declined to say in advance that I am eligible to succeed myself as Governor, and as there is at least some doubt of it, I cannot afford to, and will not embarrass my party or jeopardize its success at the approaching election by insisting upon my nomination as long as that question remains undetermined. Recognizing that there are scores of good Democrats in the State thoroughly equipped for the place and upon whose title no cloud would rest if elected, I hereby stand aside that one of them may be nominated," and he would, for years to come, be the most popular Democrat in Kentucky. And how can he consistently do anything else? Did he not decline to enter into a joint discussion with the other candidates for the expressed reason that it might engender animosities that would endanger party success?

Now, if the Governor is really so solicitous of party harmony and success, he can easily demonstrate it by withdrawing from the race and asking his party to nominate a man who can go before the people and make his canvass without being handicapped at every turn with charges of ineligibility, and whose whole time will not be necessary to combat those charges; whose election will not be called in question by a contest, and thereby risk a repetition of the disgraceful scenes and tragedies of 1899-1900.

There are two courses for the Governor; one leads to popularity and future honor and undoubted party success; the other (if he is nominated) to strife, litigation, and possibly defeat for his party either at the polls or in the courts. Which path will he choose? We shall see what we shall see.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

Which is Better, Try an Experiment or Profit by a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proven to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit.

But the endorsement of friends is. Now suppose you had a bad back; A lame, weak or aching one, Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures, Endorsed by strangers from far away places.

It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove ideal testimony.

Home endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this case:

Mr. Fred W. Bauer, job printer of 4 East Second street, says: "For a year or more I had considerable pain in my back. The secretions from the kidneys were dark and there was some inflammation of the bladder, evidenced by a sensation of scalding. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my knowledge and I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets. The treatment soon restored the kidney secretions to a natural color, ended the inflammation and banished the pain from my back. If a cold or any other cause should bring on a recurrence I now know what to use." Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

The piercing hazen sound of the British military bugle as compared with the soft smoothness of this American trumpet has often been remarked by visitors to Great Britain. The British bugles will be used by the four buglers who play at the head of the Kilties Band when they march up town from their private car, "Heather," at noon on Wednesday, April 15th, arrayed in their unique regimentals. These buglers alternate with the bagpipers in the band's street march, but the musicians do not carry their hand instruments, these being reserved, of course, for their concerts.
